6. The Government have examined the matter in detail and observed that the appointment of Kum.P.V.Sindhu, Badminton Player as Probationary Deputy Collector is for her remarkable performance and winning Silver Medal in the Rio Olympics, 2016 and for the honour she earned for the State and Nation as well. Her appointment is of special nature, an incentive to her performance on international arena and a sort of encouragement. She acts as Ambassador of Andhra Pradesh and the Country. Considering the special requirement of this officer to train continuously and represent our country in International arena, and bring laurels to the State and the Country, insisting upon the training and passing of tests which the other Probationary Deputy Collectors are supposed to undergo may hamper the special nature of training and coaching and it may be an hindrance to their advancement and career. Therefore decided to relax rules in her favour and exempt her from undergoing the prescribed training and from passing the requisite departmental tests.

7. Accordingly, the Government hereby relax the Rule 9 and 10 of Andhra Pradesh Civil Services (Executive Branch) Rules, 1992 in favour of Kum.P.V.Sindhu, Badminton Player and appointed as Probationary Deputy Collector and exempt her from undergoing the prescribed 72 weeks of mandatory training and from passing of the requisite departmental tests prescribed in the said rules.
